DAY 6: shopping in Milan and arrivederci Italia

- Time at disposal for shopping in the fashionable shops of the town.

Milan, the financial heart of the country, has got an energetic pace that matches its sky-scrapered counterparts in the rest of the world. Yet the Italian eye for beauty and style never dims.

Milan, however, is not only fashion and business. Art is also of outstanding relevance: during the Renaissance, the dynastic Visconti and Sforza families commissioned art that endured long beyond their political intrigues. Among many familiar art masterpieces, Milan is home to Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper. Indeed, architecture too is relevant in Milan: its captivating, 14th century gothic rose-marbled Il Duomo Cathedral is second in size only to Rome's St. Peter's, but exceeding it in grandeur.
