Hotel Regency

Piazza Massimo D'Azeglio 3 - 50121 Florencia

Originally constructed for high government officials and ministers of the State, today the nineteenth-century building hosts the ever enchanting and exclusive Regency hotel, an architectural treasure overlooking the splendid Piazza D'Azeglio.

The hotel is just a short walk from the city's main sights of interest, thereby offering a peaceful setting and convenient location. Situated in the very heart of Florence's historic centre, in close proximity to all major monuments and attractions, the property is a heavenly retreat.

The concierge will be delighted to organise an original journey to help you discover the wonders of Florence. A private chauffeur service, multilingual walking guide and tours may be arranged for guests by the hotel's helpful staff.

The structure dominates Piazza Massimo D'Azeglio, one of the most beautiful squares of Florence built in typical English-style. The square's garden still prides itself of the original 4-light street lamps and the basin of the fountain erected during the construction.

No two rooms alike, each of the 34 rooms and suites are exquisitely furnished and offer all the comforts of modern amenities.

Distinctly luxurious, the furnishings, tapestries, elegant draperies have all been carefully chosen to create the charming, warm and quaint atmosphere of a classic Florentine villa.

All accommodations are soundproof and feature a refined private bathroom with shower or bathtub and hairdryer, individually controlled air-conditioning and heating, satellite TV, writing desk, direct dial telephone with Internet plug and Wi-Fi connection, mini bar and electronic mini safe. Baby cots and non-smoking rooms are available upon request. Small pets are welcome.

The junior suite, extremely spacious, features a lovely terrace. The charming suites overlook the square and comprise a double bedroom, a large living room with a double sofa bed and two bathrooms.
