

Hotel Golden Apple

11 Malaya Dmitrovka Street

A five-star Golden Apple Boutique Hotel has been providing superb services in Moscow since 2004. The hotel is famous for its personalized service, distinctive atmosphere and, mostly, for exclusive design by a Canadian architects Raphael Shafir.

The hotel's 7-storey historical building of late XIX century contains 92 rooms: standard, superior, deluxe and suite. In his project Shafir successfully combined minimalism and avantgarde. Huge gold-coated apple in the hotel lobby is a favorite place for picture sessions. Each of 7 guest floors matches different colour, which is further used in room design. Rooms are luxuriously decorated with natural wood, marble and stone. Rooms are equipped with elegant furniture and fantastic lights.

Golden Apple provides excellent business and leisure facilities. Businessmen are offered up-to-date office machines, internet access and two meeting rooms for 10 people each. Health club with cardio machines, pool and jacuzzi is available 24 hours.

Guests can get a promotion to the Club Floor with extra services, including coffee machines and laundry. Rooms are equipped with reliable electronic locking system. The hotel also enjoys a guarded parking lot.

For unique experience of lodging Golden Apple offers its guests 92 rooms of 7 categories.

Their design features monochrome décor and fittings, contrasted with vibrantly colored soft-furnishings and lamps matching the floor palette. Cosy interiors are made of natural materials.

In-room amenities: air-conditioning, television with satellite and local channels, 2 telephones, Wi-Fi internet access, modem port, writing desk, personal safe, minibar, personal bathrobe and slippers.

Apple Bar & Restaurant is ideal for an elegant breakfast, a relaxed lunch or a dinner in the contemporary atmosphere of harmony and fashion. Here you can arrange a business meeting or relax over a cocktail with a couple of friends.

Right from the start the restaurant has become popular among Moscow audience. It is a traditional meeting place for well-known businessmen, politicians and artists.
