

Hotel Kempinski 4 Jahreszeiten

Maximilianstrasse 17, 80539 Munich

Welcome to Munich, the capital of Bavaria. Influenced by its southern flair, Munich is passionately named by its visitors as the northernmost city of Italy. Versatile, elegant, gracious, and cosy - this is Munich, a multifaceted metropolis with art treasures, museums with a world-wide reputation and a southern atmosphere. This attraction can be felt especially around the Theatinerkirche, in the Hofgarten and on the Maximilianstrasse. It is within this boulevard where you can also find the Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Kempinski Munich. We would be delighted to welcome you.

The atmosphere in the Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Kempinski Munich is marked with an interesting mixture of yesterday and today. The 303 rooms and suites combine the art of modern living with historical ambience. Furnishings and luxury fabrics are custom-made to suite the historical architecture of this exceptional Grand Hotel. No one room is the same as any other, but they all have one thing in common: The attractive luxury offered by one of the "Leading Hotel of the World".

Enjoy the various gastronomic areas of the Kempinski Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten. Take benefit of the culinary delicacies tickling of the palate, no matter what your preferences are.
