

Hotel De Crillon

10, Place Concorde, 75008 Paris

Of all the luxury hotels in Paris, the Hôtel de Crillon is the richest in history and culture and the most intimate. Legendary and enchanting, the hotel whose design was commissioned by Louis XV, shares its incomparable history with the glorious Place de la Concorde. Its prestigious suites boast 180 degrees view over historical Paris. Offering a unique proximity to fashionable rue du Faubourg St Honoré, the palace hotel is within walking distance to the Champs-Élysées, the Louvre Museum, the Madeleine area and the Opéra.

"Les Ambassadeurs", awarded fine dining restaurant, invites you to discover its unique atmosphere run by Jean-François Piège, one of the best interpreter of French gastronomy. "L'Obélisque", offers a traditional regional cuisine, also under Piège's supervision.

"Le Jardin d'Hiver", a lounge opening onto a magnificent patio, serves afternoon tea, drinks, light lunch and snacks all day.

"Le Bar Crillon" designed by the sculptor César and decorated by Sonia Rykiel opens from lunch time to late evening, serving drinks and light lunch. In-Room dining available 24 hours a day.

The Fitness Center features modern equipment such as treadmills, virtual stair climbers, and rowing machines. A personal trainer is available for classes. Our Guest Relations Department offers a special welcome to kids and also to women traveling alone.
