The Grand Café is located on the 1st floor of the Grand Hotel Wien in Vienna, which allows a fine view down the Vienna Ringstrasse, as well as direct access to the Ringstrassen-Galerien Shopping Mall.

Unkai means 'sea of clouds', the name hints at Unkai's location on the 7th floor of the Grand Hotel Wien, directly opposite the gourmet restaurant Le Ciel. At Unkai Restaurant guests are encouraged to enjoy authentic Japanese cuisine at the highest level, created by Chef Hiroshi Sakai.

The lobby coffee and tea lounge Rosengarten, located at the ground floor of the Grand Hotel Wien is part of the impressive lobby. Rosengarten is an established meeting place 'par excellence' at the Grand Hotel Wien where a prestigious clientele enjoys the large variety of hot and cold drinks and snacks.

Kavalierbar at the Grand Hotel Wien is the 'rendez-vous incontournable' for both Grand Hotel Wien residents and local guests! Thanks to its location on the 1st floor of the Grand Hotel Wien, Kavalierbar offers a decadent view on the famous 'Ringstrasse'.

Elegant venues for all your business and society events

The Grand Hotel Wien offers an incomparable variety of meeting rooms and the right facility for gala evenings, meetings, large conferences, receptions and private parties.

The so-called "Quadrille", named after a famous dance, is one of Vienna's biggest ballrooms with a total capacity of 500 persons.

The additional 12 venues are either decorated in traditional "Grand Style" or very modern with daylight and partly wooden floors.
